

03rd June, 2024

Dear All UCAM Member Institutions and Partners,

APPOINTMENT OF NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF UCAM

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Prof. Sharon Pittman as the new Executive Director of the Universities and Colleges Association of Malawi (UCAM), effective 01st June 2024.

Prof. Pittman graciously accepted to offer her services to UCAM after serving the Malawi Adventist University as Vice Chancellor. She once served as the first Chairperson of UCAM Board of Trustees and President. She brings a wealth of experience and a deep commitment to advancing higher education in Malawi. With a distinguished career spanning over many years in both academic and administrative roles, Prof. Pittman has consistently demonstrated exceptional leadership, strategic vision, and a passion for fostering academic excellence.

As Executive Director, Prof. Pittman will be responsible for spearheading UCAM's strategic initiatives, consolidating the UCAM footprint, support our member institutions, and enhancing the collaborative efforts across our network of universities and colleges. We are confident that under her leadership, UCAM will continue to thrive and effectively support the needs and aspirations of our member institutions.

With your unwavering support, we look forward to the positive impact that she will have on our organisation and the broader higher education community. Please join me in welcoming Prof. Pittman to UCAM in her new role.

Yours sincerely,

MOSES CHINYAMA, PhD, CEng. MIMechE.
Chairperson of Board of Trustees, UCAM
